“ Ms.Pam you will forever be remembered and cherished. It's not a moment I can't leave my home and not look over as I grew up with you in my my life. I don't think that habit will change....but it always brings a smile. My childhood memories are still so vivid, even until this day! I remember even taking my very first road trip with you as a teen and you have always been like another mom figure to so many of us on the block...even my own children. I love you dearly! “ To my old friend Pam, you will be in my heart forever. To Billie and the rest of her family, my deepest condolences on your loss. I'm so grateful to have stayed in touch with Pam throughout the years. I have so many fond memories of our childhood, but one thing that stands out is that all our friends liked to gather at your house. It was our meeting place, our clubhouse, our sanctuary. It was the place where we shared our dreams for the future, summer nights, and good stories. To have lived next door was a blessing. We all had each other's backs...the Rush brothers, Harold, Gerald, and Reggie, Ierusha, Kenny, Susan, Brian, Ira, Robert, Billie, and Nancy, Vickie & Donna. I will never forget. 98th Street will always be a slice of heaven in my memory...rest sweetly.

“ To The Family, Pam and my cousin Ierusha Martin grew up together on 98th street. They both terrorized me in a loving way. In latter years Pam was the security at Blockbuster where I was a manager. I was glad we both were on the same side. Pam left me with wonderful memories. You have my deepest sympathies. Lanita Ross

“ To my neighbor and friend you will always be in my heart and the good times we shared will be a memory forever my friend until we meet again 98 street forever

Ierusha Martin - July 04, 2020 at 09:03 PM

Ierusha, it has been so many years, old friend. I remember you and Irena fondly and hope you are well. "Little Pam"

Pamela Cohen - July 06, 2020 at 01:59 AM

To Pam, Billie and the entire family my deepest condolences. Pam was not only the BEST next door neighbor ever, she was a true friend. I will miss her greatly but will never forget her friendship. NMHRK. Life is eternal and Pam will be in my heart forever.
