“ Dang my girl, life is short. I just went on Facebook to talk to you because I hadn't heard from you in a while. When I saw that you hadn't posted in years I went to Google you and found this out. I will always remember our basic training days. You are the whole reason that I love the song "I told the storm" because you use to lay in your bunk beside me every night and sing it over and over. All the way from Louisiana, I love you sis. Sleep pretty baby. And I'm praying for your babies and family. I'm so sorry.
