“ Patricia demonstrated examples of Leadership and Mentorship. She motivated those around her to work hard toward a goal and to achieve; then to start a path to a new goal.

I shared with Patricia on a few occasions how I admired her ability to keep in contact with people and just do a “check in” call or text. I told her that was a gift and not a duty. What a blessing to have been able to be one of the ones she called or texted. May you (Patricia) rest well. You will surely be missed.

“ George Bernard Shaw once said, “Life is no brief candle to me. It is a sort of splendid torch which I am permitted to hold for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.” Patricia started out in our WAO

Toastmasters Club as a quiet candle, but I was amazed at how she ended up being a splendid torch, blazing away as an inspiration to all of us. It was a pleasure and a privilege to know Patricia not just as a club member, but a courageous human being whose memory still shines forth among us.
