“ Dear Heather, Hillary, Mani & Family....As you all know, Pat was sincerely a best friend and sister to me. We Prayed, laughed, cried and shared our lives for over 44 years in a loving relationship with each other and our families. Her love for all of you was deep rooted in her soul & spirit. She loved family and friends. Her legacy will live eternally in all of our hearts.

Just like each of you, your mom's love and spirit is "Shining Brightly Over the Heavens and the Universe". Please know that God's Grace and His Love is with you Always.

I know that she is at PEACE. I can hear her saying "Hallelujah" as her testament of assurance in Faith.. listen closely...you will hear her too.

My Prayers, Love & Support are anchored in each of you.

Love Sister & Auntie Vivian

Rest in peace Pat. This is tough. You are such a beautiful person my childhood friend. You gave a lot of women encouragement and support. I will say see you later my colleague and I love you. To Mr . Slaughter, Hill , Heather, and the entire family of Pat, you have my heartfelt condolences. Pat being the oldest always held it together. I watched her do it! We laughed danced, partied together during this journey and I so enjoyed those times, Rest well Pat, Love, Bonnie
