“ He will always be “Mr. Grison” to me. He had my utmost respect. I met Mr. Grison whilst working at a Midas Shop in Scottsdale neighborhood of Chicago. Always a gentleman, always friendly, always happy and always praising the Lord. Mrs. Grison was his Queen and they both complimented each as well finishing each others sentences. He taught me more about me than I knew of myself. When he brought his car in for repairs, he’d always say little things like “now Jim, I know you need to make buck but I can’t be the guy to make you rich”. I truly enjoyed all the conversations throughout the years. Mr. Gridon, I know who has you now. Your in good hands and thank for the memories. To Mrs. Grison, Vonrick, Deborah and the whole Grison family, my sincerest deepest condolences. I do so hope to see you sometime in the future. In my eyes, Mrs. Grison, Vonrick and Deborah, your husband and father was one of the best, he just was.

“ Thinking of the days you and Yvonne spent at Emerald Avenue Church of God in Sunday School and church; your children and my children and our children in youth fellowship makes for pleasant memories. We missed the fellowship when you felt the Lord would have you join another fellowship but the memories have lingered on. May God bestow God's richest blessings on Yvonne and your girls who will miss you dearly.
