“ Mr. Robinson was the kindest person to me, my father, and my family. He and I shared the love of Blues, and I remember finding out from a band I used to book--Willie Kent and the Gents--that Mr. Robinson was a Blues star in his own right in Chicago. Little did I know, he lived across the street from my father for 30+ years! It was a pleasant surprise and he and I joked about it many times. The last time I spoke with him, I was visiting my dad and he joked about getting on the back of my motorcycle and traveling with me, but I told him Cynthia would kill me!

Deepest condolences, Cynthia. My family and I will miss his smile from across the street. He was my guy!
