“ First, my condolences to Roe's family. I'm just finding out about Roe leaving us, today. We were in high school together at Unity & she truly was an Angel to me. When my parents went out of town, I was scared to be by myself. So, Rolita came and stayed with me for a few days, until my folks came back. After graduating from college, I did try to keep up. I moved so far, it was hard. She had a son I never met. We both went on with life, but I thought about her so much. Sitting here at my desk, it had to have been the Lord telling me to just google her & try to make contact. She's been on my mind so much lately. Only thing is, when I did, I found this. I'm heartbroken right now. I can still see her 20 year old smile in the memories in my head. We were 10 days apart in our birthdays & we used to keep up with those birthday calls. But over the years those stopped. My heart is aching right now. Missing my Roe. I know I should've made more of an effort to find you. I'm so sorry. I really am. Girl you meant a lot to me. Leslie c/o 86...Unity Angels. Roe you'll live forever, in my heart. Love you girl!

“Rolita was our son's infant daycare provider during his infancy years, and she cared for him as her own. My fondest memory was the day she informed that she, her mom, her son, and 2 year our son at the time would break curfew, because they're shopping and eating Chinese food. "Ro" as she was affectionately called soon became and will forever remain family. My most defined moment of "Ro" was when she told me that she rededicated herself to Christ. I was sad when I received the news of her passing, but I remembered that absent the body is present with the Lord. Since she is with the Lord now, I can remain confident in the thought, that she's in heaven beholding God's glory. We will miss you "Ro", you will never be forgotten, and we'll reunite in due time
