“ I remember your smile, your zest for life, and your love for all people. Like you always said, “The four walls of a church building does NOT teach you how to be a good person. You just have to live it out each day and be good to yourself, and be good to others.” Rest In Peace dear brother. -MJ Hunter, RGP-Midwest

“ I knew Romail only from my monthly doctor visits but enough to know he had a heart of gold. I'd always go back to his desk area shared with Nancy Carbone to laugh with them. Romail was hilarious and a good soul. To his friends and family, I hope knowing that he touched many people and I for one am blessed for having known him, can help ease your sorrow and loss. Peace, Romail.
