“Gpa” thank you for sharing your love so generously to me, and others. You represented what the world needs...LOVE!

Your fierce Spirit, strength, and quick witted mind surprised and impressed me. I smile as I think about you now. You have touched my heart, and I am incredibly grateful for your kindness of allowing me to spend time with you in prayer, laughter and the silence of just being.

I'm forever thankful for the wonderful memories and joy you've added to my life. While few, I now have Gpa stories that live within my memory, my heart, and that I can reflect upon with joy in my Spirit anytime.

Thank you for sharing your goodness. I am truly blessed to have known you. Until we meet again, it is well, and know that the love you gave, continues.

*Thank you Nadgia for the connection!

“ My Uncle Ronnie was a humorous man. Every time I saw him he would call me Connie. Connie is my mothers nickname. I said " Uncle Ronnie I'm Connie's daughter Candie". He said " You look just like my sister, how you doing"?....lol.... I miss you Uncle Ronnie, you may be gone in body but not in spirit. Continue to rest easy and in power. Say Hi to Auntie Kathy for me. Love you!

“ To my sisters, brothers, nieces, and great nephew,

It was just under 33 years ago that Pops welcomed me into y'all family with his beaming, affectionate smile. He always had kind words of encouragement for my kids, DeLeon, and I. He took pride in providing for his family and always made sure everyone was okay. Even in his last days being bedridden, he would always inquire about the welfare of others such as myself. He was a very caring and selfless person, attributes that are rare in today's times. He brought joy to everyone that crossed his path. Please know that his work here on earth has been accomplished and that he is now resting in peace with Mom and Lil Sis Trina. Job well done, Pops.

Family, I wish I could take away y'all pain but I cannot. However, may the beautiful memories of your father bring you strength in the days to come. I will forever cherish his memories. Thanks for sharing him with me.

“ Me and G-PaPa had some good times together. He was the Best Grandfather I could ever ask for. He was always there for me even when no one else was. He always told me to keep going and to never stop and that made me keep going.

(“How are you doing today, G-PaPa? This is Ashari. I was on TV Monday marching in the Martin Luther King, Jr parade as part of JROTC and I know you seen me from above. They did me a little bit Drake but it’s cool though, at least I did it. I just want to tell you that I love you and you will always be in my heart no matter what. Have a good day and tell my mom I said heyyyyy!!! How she doing? Bye for now and know that I love you soooooo much.”)

“ Cherished Memories of My G-Pa;

I’m gonna miss how me and Auntie Gia used to change him and one time he didn’t want to be changed so he tried fighting Auntie Gia. I love the funny reactions every time we changed him. I also like how he used to tell me about his favorite old tv show. And I loved his smile even though he had a little teeth, he always had a happy smile on his face. I’m very glad that we got to spend our last Christmas with him before he passed and I hope that Granny and Mommy give him a nice warm welcome hug when he gets to that better place.

“ My most incredible memories of you, Uncle, were when you would come to my mom’s house, your sister Geraldine. You brought great joy with you. You would scare the living mess out of me and my sisters, and you would laugh so hard, saying, “Come here, girl!” After we overcame the fear, we would laugh along with you! Those were some good days! Love you forever! Your niece, Lorraine

“ I met Mr. Park as a teenager and he was always respectful and then as an adult I was out with one of his daughters at a place ordering a drink and there Mr. Parker was with a beer he saw us , he spoke and basically never visited that place again. He respected us enough to let us have it and found him another hangout. He loved his kids and showed it every time I seen him. He was funny and then the way he looked at mama mitts was everything!!! Thanks for always being respectful and loving whenever I saw you .
