

Ronald Slater

September 27, 1964 - May 6, 2026

Ronald Slater, 61, passed away leaving a legacy of love, hard work, and devotion to his family. Born on September 27, 1964, to the late Carrie Slater and James Slater, Ronald was the tenth of eleven children. He grew up knowing the value of family, a trait that defined his entire life.

Ronald completed his early education at Westcott Elementary School and later attended Lawrence Hall. A dedicated worker, he spent years employed with the Turtle Wax Company before launching his own landscaping business. Outside of work, Ronald was a passionate car enthusiast who held a lifelong admiration for specific automobile brands. Above all, he loved his family fiercely and would do absolutely anything to support them. Ronald was reunited in death with his parents; Carrie Slater and James Slater, his five brothers, Nathaniel, Larry, William, Marvin, and Steven; his grandson, Deondre Egeston; and his great-nephews, Shaun Patrick and Darnell Johnson Jr.

He leaves behind a large, loving family to cherish his memory, including his ex-wife, Yvonne Marshall; and his children, Tinie Slater, Ronnie Marshall (Kenisha), Cinita Marshall (Lamont), Charletta Marshall, and Rosalind Marshall (Nicks) his eldest daughter, Carolyn Collins (mother Angela Collins). He is also survived by his brother, Cordell Slater; his four sisters, Carolyn Slater, Samina Brown, Earline Wagner, and Comfort Jackson (Randy); 11 grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. He will be deeply missed and forever loved by all who knew him.
