“ Steve was a caring person. I was his barber for 20+ years and he never neglected to trouble himself to make sure our family was well. He instantly became family to us and we shared a kindred spirit for one another. I remember the last time Steve visited our church, I asked him, If he would consider giving his life to Christ? His response was "I need to." So, he and my husband walked the aisle together, as he was led to make a public declaration, that Jesus Christ is his Lord and Personal Savior. So, to the family and friends of Steve, be encouraged to know that he is asleep and his soul is at rest with the Lord.
