“ This sweet beautiful lady shared her life with us and our Genesis support community and we all loved her. Her boys we much younger then...she shared her love for Jesus with all she met and always such a blessing ❤️
She also partnered with our health community for being healthy herself and for her boys... what a joy...we watched her leave for Illinois to be close to her wonderful family...and met her husband ... trusted God... oh how sweet... we miss her and pray for todays Memorial Service for all friends and family.

“ Tamara was a wonderful prayer warrior, wife, mother, sister, and friend. She trusted and feared God above all, and I'm sure she has taken her well earned rest in the comfort of God's loving arms. She was beautiful, kind, loving, helpful, funny and generous. Tamara was well traveled, bilingual, and accomplished in so many other ways. She will be missed terribly by all of us, but especially by her two young sons. Please support her precious boys with prayer, calls, gifts and visits as much as you can. Tam would definitely appreciate that.

Love Always,
Sister Monique
