“ Mommy! I miss you so much. Another year of reflection on what life has been like without you. This year has been a hard one. Family ain't the same and I just have to say my peace and love folks from afar. I feel like I lost a piece of me momma but I'm trying to keep going and make you proud. I'm married now! I hope you are proud! Everyday isn't easy but we're loving on each other. Brayden will be 13 next month and I'm not ready. You know he still talks about you often and sometimes cries his little eyes out missing you so much. I just tell him to light a candle for you and talk to you cause you can hear him. He's at a new school and he's doing pretty well. Oh lord and of course he's girl crazy. Definitely not ready for him to be dating yet. TT is doing great and I just love me some Landon. He's exactly what we needed and I know he's here because of you 😊. Dada misses you and talks about you everytime he's over. He hasn't been the same and then losing auntie Emma made it even worse. Send him some love momma 💕 Give grandad lots of hugs and kisses for me and tell him I miss him too. I know he would have loved him some Landon cause he loved little babies. Keep watching over us and protecting us the best way you know how! Love and miss you beautiful!

“ This will forever be one of my favorite pictures of you mom! So full of life and beautiful as ever! I miss you, been missing you even more lately but I thank you for keeping me busy. Cake business has taken off and I'm so grateful! You keep me going, Brayden keeps me going. Please continue to keep us safe! I love you momma! ❤️

“ Hey my love! Happy New Year! I wished so much that you were here to celebrate and welcome another decade with us but God needed his Angel. I miss you more and more each day. I just hope I'm making you proud. I know you and gpa are enjoying each other's company. I miss you both so much. Grandma is down here killing it with the jewelry. I bought a set from her specifically to go with your ashes around my neck. I can't wait to wear them. Anyway I love and miss you. Until we see each other again please keep us all safe, especially grandma cause she's missing you and gpa the most. 🥺

“ Hey my queen! You finally got your daddy up there with you! I’m so sad that my paw paw had to leave and I haven’t even really gotten thru the hurt of losing you. But God saw fit to call him home a year after you and I’m just glad that just as you are, he is finally able to rest. Please continue to watch over us as we hold onto granny. Life is precious and I miss and love you both so much!

“ My beautiful queen! It still breaks my heart that you are no longer here but I am so grateful to God for letting me have you for 31 years. When I saw you resting peacefully the day we said goodbye I knew for sure that you were at peace and with the lord. I’ll miss you until we meet up again and I can give you a big hug. My heart has an empty space with your name on it. I can’t wait to see you again momma.
