“ To John and family we are praying hat God will give you the strength and favor at this time. We know that it will be hard to fill that space that was occupied by your mom, but heaven has a way of giving us comfort and the knowledge that the memories of our loved one will be with us forever. God has promised us that our faithfulness will be rewarded as only He do. We firmly believe that when she has finished eating her mana and received her new name that she will join the heavenly host and wait for her loved ones to join her.

“ To Rev John and Irma, Trust in the Lord with all thine Heart! His promises never never fails! Aunt Sophia was precious to our family. It was always special to have her visit us in the "country". She always had an encouraging word and sense of humor. She was indeed a friend to my mother, Annie Pearl Finney. Praying for you and your family! Wish I could be there:) Cousin Liz Carter, Stafford, VA

“ *I remember many years ago visiting with family in Chicago. For some reason, I found myself “hanging” out with cousin Sophie. Just the two of us talking and laughing. I will miss her beautiful smile and gift of gab. My prayers to my family. God bless you all!
