“ Heard of your move to eternal life last Scamp reunion. Glad I was able to briefly be your shipmate and friend. Your 😊 smile made everything easier and you taught me the value of "red gravy" on some of those sea meals. Until we meet again, rest in peace.

“ I served with Wayne in the late 70's aboard the nuclear submarine USS Scamp. I think of him from time to time as I daydream about experiences from my youth. Wayne was a special man. I feel privileged to have served with him. God rest his soul and give comfort to his family and friends.

Me too. We called him "McPon" which stood for Master Chief Petty Officer Of The Navy. I owe Wayne so much more than I could ever repay. Strong winds my eternal friend!
