William loved the Lord and one of God's true messengers. Years ago I remember when he was seeking after the Lord here in Stlouis. Pastor Lynn Mims , the pastor of Barak Christian Church help navigate William to a blessed path , of receiving Jesus Christ. I can remember when there was a Bible study , one hot summer day and William , not being familiar with St.Louis , found his way to a scheduled Bible study on city's central west end on foot, found the street which was a closed gated community. He was so on fire for Christ he scaled a 10ft gate to gain access to the house where the Bible study was scheduled

Rev. William Lemons Waa A Special Friend & College In The Ministry. I First Met Rev. Lemons In 2009 @ A Protest Rally For A WRONGFUL CONVICTION Issue In St. Louis. He Was Always On The Side Of Justice For Those Impacted By Injustice. I Remember, In August 2021, While Visiting Chicago, I Discovered That LEMS BARBQ Was In A Neighborhood Where My Family Lived. My Cousin Requested That We Get Him Some BarBQ From. Lems. I Called Rev Lemons And Shared With Him That I Was @ His Family's Restaurant. He Immediately Called His Family And Told Them That I Was In Town. I Was Treated With The Greatest Hospitality On Could Find In The Mid-West. I Regret That I Couldn't Make To Rev. Lemons Celebration Of Life Services. I Live In Las Vegas. Yet, I Want You To Send My Condolences To The Entire Lemons Family. Rev. William Davis Lemons Was A Sweet Lemons, Sent By GOD To Help The World Make Lemonade When We Face Difficult Times. He Will Forever Live In My Heart 🍋🍋
