

Wilma Wilkins

September 5, 1923 - February 3, 2020

Wilma Wilkins a beloved matriarch of her family. Wilma fearlessly worked to create a better future through her lifelong civic engagement. She participated in the historic Civil Rights movement and worked professionally at the Urban Progress Center. A multi-talented woman, her deep appreciation for beauty inspired her to pursue careers as a florist and a culinarian. She shared these talents with her loved ones and community through event planning, stellar cooking, and political work.
