“ Yancy aka Ya-Ya was one of the first friends I made when I moved to the Oaks in 1991. Together we had so many fun and memorable moments. I will cherish these memories forever. He always had my back and was a good friend to me. I will miss his smile, the jokes and laughter and simply just the man he was. Yancy was one of those guys that gained the love and respect from everyone. He was the king of nicknames, everyone had one, mine was "Kitchens". My thoughts and prayers go out to all that loved and cared for him and his entire family, including his mother Brenda whom he loved immensely, his twin brother Chancijie and especially his children that he leaves behind. RIP my friend, until we meet again...
