“ Dear Alan & Bruce: I hope that you will find consolation by turning to God's Word in your time of affliction. The Bible states in Psalms 34:18 "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Weeping is normal, even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend Lazarus died. God is called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) No doubt, Yolanda's death leaves a void in your lives. To help fill it, the Bible reveals that it is Jehovah God's purpose to restore the dead to life by means of a resurrection in the new world where violence, accidents, sickness and death will be no more. Jesus gave this assurance, "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him at the last day." (John 6:40; Revelation 21:3, 4) Until that day comes, may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and gave everlasting comfort and good hope by means of undeserved kindness, comfort your hearts and make you firm in every good deed and word. (2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17)

“ Our sincere condolences to the family. May you be strengthened and encouraged to know that God will provide much comfort to you in the days ahead as you cope with the passing of your loved one. We are encouraged by His words at Revelation 21: 4 which says of our future hope: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Jehovah has also given us the hope of a resurrection at John 5:28 where He says “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” May the friends and family be comforted during this time of great loss.
